

THOMSON REUTERS LEGAL TRACKER BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE

Having the right data at the right time is imperative to making better and informed business decisions. Comprehensive business intelligence can give you insight into many facets of your business, including sales, staff performance, competition, and internal processes. Thomson Reuters Legal Tracker™ (formerly Serengeti Tracker™) Business Intelligence provides the support your business needs to accelerate and improve the decision-making process, optimize internal business processes, and increase operational efficiency.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Unify all of your data from multiple sources outside of Tracker into a single repository to unleash the power of your most valuable asset
- Customize data to your own unique and exact needs, including irregular filtering and sorting, unique coloring schemes, and personalized data presentation
- Interactivity allows you to drill down and customize details from individual segments to explore related detail
- Empower your people to make forward-looking business intelligence decisions from predictive visual analytics

Legal Tracker Professional Services consultants can help you design and develop a system or process to analyze your data and present actionable information to help your legal department executives, business managers, and operational workers gain a comprehensive view of your business—in one place to make faster, more informed business decisions. We can help display Tracker data and data from other systems in meaningful ways, through graphic charts, dashboards, and tabular reports. In addition, we can help you leverage the Tracker dashboard tool or industry standard tools such as Microsoft® Power BI™, Tableau®, Microsoft Excel®, and PowerPoint® to get the data you need.

The benefits of developing your company's business intelligence with Legal Tracker Professional Services includes:

- Optimize your data analysis and presentation so decision makers can make the most informed decisions
- Personalize your data analytic metrics to your exact and unique requirements to create stunning visual analytics
- Broaden your legal department's analytics capability by combining Tracker data with other sources for a more holistic view of your department's operations
- Improve the efficiency of your data collection and retrieval process to present reliable and timely reports
