Key areas of alignment

- Strategy
- Organization
- Human capital
- Planning and control systems

Protect against threats to your bottom line

Asset protection is a top concern for corporate security with cybercrimes and workplace violence on the rise.

Cybercrimes are costly.

A recent study revealed the average annualized cost of cybercrime incurred by U.S. organizations is $15 million. This represents a net increase of 82% over the six-year span of the study.*

82% increase in cost of cybercrime

A single act of workplace violence can have damaging effects on a business:

- Temporary or permanent loss of a good employee
- Psychological damage to those involved
- Damaged, stolen, or sabotaged property
- Increased worker compensation costs
- Higher security costs
