

6 Ways Firms Can Win with Legal Technology in an Uncertain Market

As COVID-19 spreads, legal professionals are facing new challenges. Fortunately, legal technology allows attorneys the flexibility to conduct business and serve clients remotely, better positioning their firms for success.

1. Maximize Attorney Performance

Use legal tech to increase your team's productivity no matter where they are

2. Appeal to Discerning Clients

Be responsive to your clients' needs with tools to improve your speed and accuracy

3. Attract Top Talent

Invest in the cutting-edge legal tech that young associates are demanding

4. Deploy Virtual Client Communication

Connect with clients anytime, anywhere with tools like secure client portals and video conferencing

5. Compete for New Business

Expand your expertise into new areas of law with tech that gives you valuable how-tos and checklists

6. Use Tech as a Differentiator

Set your firm up for success by being faster, more accurate and better informed using legal tech

Visit the Thomson Reuters COVID-19 Resource Center for more information.