

The document automation solution of choice for law firms.

HighQ Doc Auto

Document automation is one of the most popular ways for law firms to increase efficiency and decrease risk. Every day more law firms are turning to document automation to save time and improve client service.

What are the three main drivers for this?

- > 1 Drafting efficiency
- > 2 Increased standardization and improved quality of precedent bank
- > 3 Client offering differentiation

What practice areas see the most benefit from document automation?

REAL ESTATE

BANKING

CORPORATE

LITIGATION

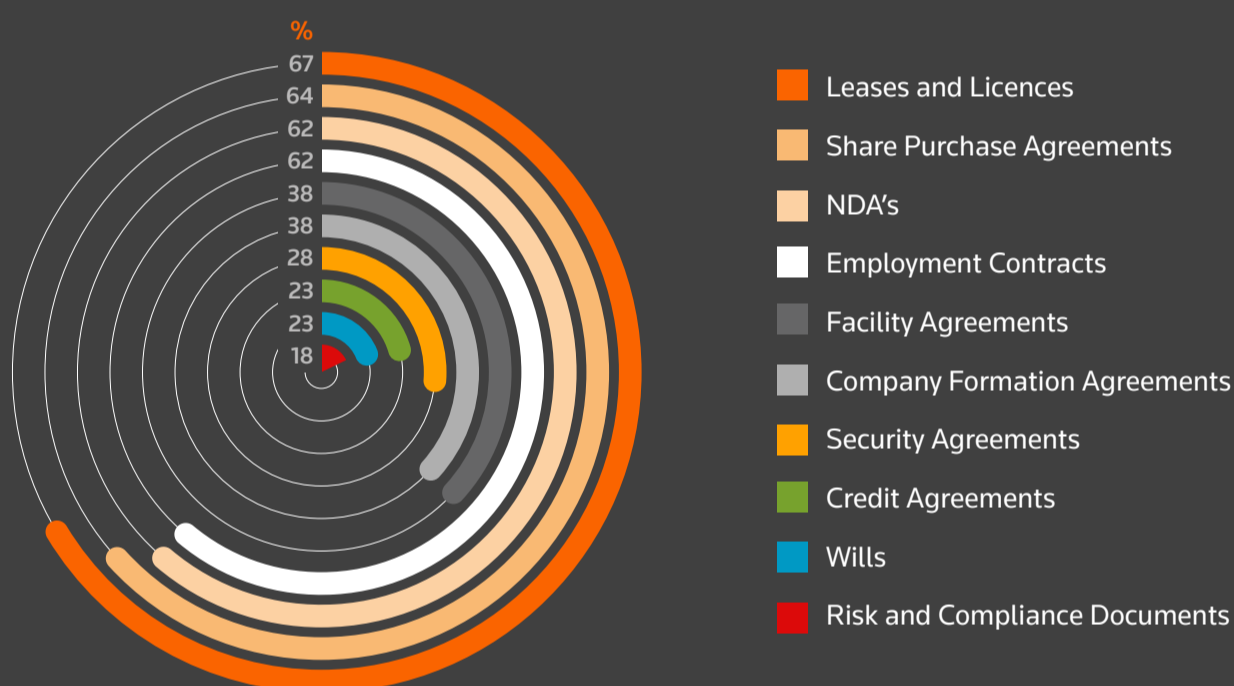

IP

TAX/TRUSTS

What documents are they automating?

Why are they picking HighQ Doc Auto above other solutions?

Easy to use template document questionnaire

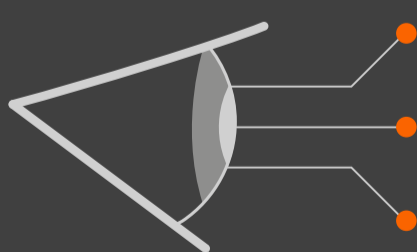

Ease of creating automated documents

Comprehensive service and support offering

Users of document automation report several benefits

These include:

- Reduction of risk of errors in first drafts
- Freeing up partner and associate time for more value-add work
- Improving their ability to maintain precedents
- Enhanced their client offering
- Sped up their transaction completion time

Learn more at tr.com/HighQ

Share:

THOMSON REUTERS®